

WILLIAM G. CLAYTON

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

Webb, "and told me he was in great need of money, and wanted me to loan him $500."

"Did you know at that time that he was trying to get on the police force?"

"I did, more than three months previous."

"Did he tell you that he needed the money to pay for a place on the force?"

"No, I think not."

"Were you aware that he wanted it to pay for the police force?"

"No, sir. He only told me he wanted the money, and I gave it him."

"What was the young man's name?"

"Patrick Shea."

"Was he appointed to the force?"

"Yes, I learned it from my children, who saw him on the street in uniform shortly after my return to the city last fall."

"Did he ever pay you back the money?"

"Yes, he paid me $150 about a month after he got the appointment and $300 more a little afterwards. I think he has paid it all back."

"Then he didn't tell you he wanted the money to facilitate his appointment?"

"No, he asked me before I loaned him the money if I knew him, and I told him I knew Mr. McClave slightly."

"Did he write a letter to Mr. McClave recommending his appointment?"

"Yes."

Mr. Webb, in answer to Mr. Nicol's questions, said that Shea had been employed for three or four months when he loaned him the money. Shea was a single man, but supported his parents. Mr. Webb was then excused.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

"None for that month."

These books and passbooks were left in charge of the Sergeant-at-Arms at Mr. Goff's request.

The source of income to the Pension Fund, as stated by Mr. Goff, were $200,000 Excise Fund, license fees for steam boilers, municipal permits, fines for late and sick time of members of the fire department, and all other receipts received and paid for.

The witness described how the annual report of the Pension Fund was made up. In answer to Senator Granger's inquiry he said that it would be possible to find out the source of the money that had been drawn on the fund.

As there ever such a check found to have been drawn? Mr. Nicol asked.

"Never to my knowledge," Mr. Goff replied. "I have been in charge of the books of this fund."

"Since 1891, I believe," Mr. Nicol said.

"Yes, I believe," Mr. Goff replied. "I have been in charge of the books of this fund."

Has Mr. McClave ever drawn a check on the fund?

"No, he couldn't do so," Mr. Goff replied. "He was not a member of the fund."

Mr. Goff then produced his private check and stub books. His private check book, which he had drawn on the fund, was larger. He handed them over to Mr. Goff with an air of resignation.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

robbed the mails, taking $20 from a registered letter the first day.

"I made good all his stealings. The only reason why he was not prosecuted by the Post-office authorities was that they said they only had his own confession. I recommended him to Mr. Van Hook, and he was released."

"How much did Granger ever give to his wife during the six years of his married life?"

"Less than $100. Once or twice he gave her a little money to buy trinkets for the children and to help him maintain the household."

Alleged Forged Checks Produced.

Mr. Nicol handed the witness a bundle of twenty checks and notes which he had found in the trunk of the late Mr. Granger. They were signed with fictitious names, and payable usually to Granger, who Mr. Nicol said would take them to some one he knew and get them cashed.

A search of the witness' memory failed to show how many he had paid out for Granger since he became your son-in-law, on these forged papers, and for other similar fraudulent acts," asked Mr. Nicol.

"About $25,000," replied Mr. McClave, and a buzz of surprise went around the crowded courtroom.

How much money have you paid out for Granger since he became your son-in-law, on these forged papers, and for other similar fraudulent acts," asked Mr. Nicol.

"About $25,000," replied Mr. McClave, and a buzz of surprise went around the crowded courtroom.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

LEADERS IN CONFERENCE.

It is supposed they discussed the Police Investigation.

Mayor Gilroy, Lieut. Gov. Sheehan, Mayor Center and Police Commissioner Martin had their heads close together in the Mayor's office this afternoon.

The Police Commissioner had some connection with the police investigation, but this supposition lacks confirmation.

IS GRANGER IN YONKERS?

Said to Have Been Seen by People Who Know Him.

YONKERS, N. Y., May 21.—Gideon Granger, ex-son-in-law of Commissioner McClave, was created quite a stir before Mr. Nicol's committee to investigate, and who had been seen by several people in Yonkers.

Granger, who was born in 1820, was married to a woman who had been seen by several people in Yonkers.

Granger, who was born in 1820, was married to a woman who had been seen by several people in Yonkers.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

SENATE AND SUGAR TRUST.

Another Phase of the Bribery Investigation Begins.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Senate Judiciary Committee to-day began its investigation of the sugar trust.

The committee heard testimony from a witness who had been in the employ of the sugar trust.

The witness testified that he had been in the employ of the sugar trust.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

ARMOR-PLATE INQUIRY.

House Committee Begins Its With Open Doors.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Congressional investigation into armor plate began to-day with open doors.

The committee heard testimony from a witness who had been in the employ of the armor plate company.

The witness testified that he had been in the employ of the armor plate company.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

THE TARIFF DEBATE.

Senator Hale Takes His Turn at Scolding the Democrats.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—A short debate on Hawaii preceded the resumption of the tariff debate in the Senate to-day.

Senator Hale took the floor and scolded the Democrats.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHEAT OPENS HIGHER.

Reports of Damage to Crops Also Helps Cotton.

July wheat advanced here about 1-16 to 5/16, at the opening, while at Chicago the early price was 55-1/2c, a decline of 1-16. An advance to 56-3/8 soon followed.

The improvement was due to reports of injury to the crops. Corn and oats were also higher.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

MR. G. CLAYTON'S

THE DEFENSIVE.

(Continued from First Page.)

WHY DO THE SALES OF HOOD'S CURES?

Continued from First Page.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.

Because the people are suffering from the disease.